General Hawley and Mrs. Weyfolds passed through the city today. General Hawley informed us that the allotment is going along fairly well, although that "fairly well" means that only about 100 allotments have been made. The general says that great difficulty is found in finding corners, many of the corners being pulled up or destroyed. It will be seen that with 100 allotments made so far it will be a long time before the allotments can be made, and impossible within the limit of the law. The general and Mrs. Reynolds have been relieved from duty in this field. Col. Nester is now in full charge and the work is still going on.

A. S. Daniel & Co., make the prices. They are absolutely the lowest price house in the city.
