Bradley Town Meeting

The Town of Bradley held its monthly meeting on May 17, 2005 at 7:00 P.m. at the Community Building.

Board members present were Donna Sheinberg, Nataline Harrington Larry Morris, and Charlene Brown, town clerk.

Jim Peak, Grady Co. Deputy, talked about the Neighborhood Watch Program. He told us how to watch out for our town, such as walking or driving through the town and see if we think there is anything unusual going on, and if we do call the Grady Co. Sheriff's Office. We also scheduled a drug awareness + finger printing meeting to be held on June 25, 2005 at the Community Building from 2:00 - 4:00 p.m.

Discuss septic tank - need to get an idea of what size we need + call to find out the price. Danny Manka has volunteered to dig the hole + liner.

The hot water heater is not working properly. Larry Morris was to call about the warranty on it.

Discuss raise for Juanita Havens for the solid waste. Larry Morris was to call about solid waste billing. The raise issue was postponed until next meeting.

The kitchen is looking real good and is almost finished.

New business - need to pay Bobby Kearon + Mary Kay Stevens for mowing ~~the~~ at the Community Building. Bobby said we owed him $3.00 but ~~keep~~ keep it for now.

Legal hot water heater up for bid - accepted $25.00 bid.

Nataline made a motion to adjourn + seconded by Larry.
