 swept down on us last night.

The electric light went on a Sunday night on an early hour, and left us without the lights for the Christmas eve, but the light man took the broken piece to Waco, Texas, to be repaired, and last evening he turned on an spark and all to have again.
 Mr. Irving can't prevent a break once in awhile, but he speaks lighter labor or expense to repair it when we occur.

CHRISTMAS!

Has come and gone. Perhaps in the rush of Christmas buying some one has been overlooked, you can atone for your sin of omission by making a New Year's Gift. While we have enjoyed a very large share of the Christmas patronage you will still find the best of choosing here. This is because our stocks are so large as to stand even the Christmas onslaught without being reduced beyond the point of good choosing and a good assortment. We have received a lot of Black Dress Goods that we bought for the Holiday trade but were delayed on the road. These were intended to sell for $1.50 to $2.50. You can have them now from 75c to $1.65.
