Printer's Ink, the recognized authority on advertising in the United States, is a recent addition, containing the following "A compendium of the best and easiest papers for the month of February appropriate to establish the supremacy of the morning paper over the evening paper, at least in the estimate of the advertiser."
"These figures on the morning papers carried 2,586,279 lines of advertising, of which 1,264,429 were on Monday, and about 1,321,849 lines in the evening paper."
"From this the exclusive of the Sunday morning issue the preponderance of the week day morning publication was 70 per cent."

CHICKASHA CROPS

Weekly Report of U. S. Dept. of Agriculture.

All Crops in Fine Condition

Wheat and Oats Harvest Well Under Way—Cotton Doing Well.

Over the northern portion wheat and oat harvests are in progress, and good yields are reported; corn is laid by, and is in fine condition; cotton is in good state of cultivation, but somewhat retarded on low lands; grain is good and stock doing well; fruit good.

Over the middle portion all crops are making a good growth; wheat ready to harvest and well up with their work; rice would be beneficial.

Over the southern portion crops are in a good state of cultivation, but corn and cotton are doing well; wheat and oats are being harvested, while yielding a short crop; and a good crop; some cotton being damaged by insects; fruit is beginning to ripen; garden goods well up and would be benefited by rain.

G. L. R. C.

On Wednesday afternoon, June 11th, Chickasha Circuit held its last meeting for the year at the present home of Mr. W. A. Carr. The circuit reorganized with 17 members and elected the following officers for the next year: Mr. W. H. Henderson, Pres.; Mr. D. M. Johnson, Vice; Mr. J. H. Harris, Sec.; and Mr. John G. Orie.

A Mr. Johnson was elected. Mr. Myrtle Fox rendered some good service. Mr. Johnson gave a resolution that was very much appreciated. The part of the program closed with a sermon on the same of text. The progress of current events have been given by Mr. Johnson, Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Deane.
